

“THE GREY-EYED CAT”

IT WAS SUSAN'S ELEVENTH BIRTHDAY, and she desperately wanted a pet. Her parents were taking her to the nearest animal shelter to see what cats they had in store. Susan opened the door to the cat room. In that room, the cats were free to run around and play. It was chaotic! All of the cats were leaping around, as if they had too much catnip. All . . . except one. A beautiful white cat slept calmly on a fluffy pink pillow despite all of the noise. Susan stepped in, and the cat awoke with a start. She had mysterious grey eyes. The cat sat proudly and stared at Susan with those strange grey eyes.
