

“THE MAGIC HEXAGON”

THERE WAS ONCE A GIRL CALLED LEONIE who lived in Australia. Leonie loved spending her free time in the garden. There were cherries and apples hanging from the trees and colorful flowers with velvety petals. One day Leonie saw a patch of green grass, which she had never noticed before. It was in the shape of a hexagon and there was a key on it. As soon as the girl picked it up the key a keyhole appeared. Leonie carefully put the key inside the keyhole . . .
